PLUAJ SUKCESOJ

Dank' al la fideleco de niaj samideanoj, malgraŭ malrankvilaj maroj kaj fortaj ventoj la bona ŝipo "Esperanto" daŭre faras kontentigan progresadon. Mi rapidas esprimi la tutkoran dankon de la Konsilantaro kaj mi mem al ĉiu, kiu tiel malavare respondis al mia peto por helpo en la forigo de la deficiteto de la pasinta jaro. La amikoj, kiuj ĝis nun ne partoprenis en la peno forviŝi la ŝuldon, kaj kiuj povas helpi, estas petataj fari sian eblon senprokraste. Se ĉiu faros sian parton, la afero bone sukcesos, kaj la movado gajnos novan forton kaj antaŭenpuŝon.

La pasinta monato estas memorinda pro tio, ke la Malferman Paroladon de la Reĝo ĉe la Britimperia Ekspozicio oni brodkastis en Esperanto. Tio estas unu el la plej gravaj kaj imponaj okazaĵoj en la historio de nia movado, kaj nepre havos gravajn sekvojn. Multaj amikoj priparolis la aferon kun mi kaj faris demandojn pri la lingvo. Ĉiu propagandisto devus aludi la aferon en siaj paroladoj plej detale kaj imprese. Al S-ro Epton, kiu legis la parolon, mi deziras esprimi sinceran gratulon pri la bonega maniero, laŭ kiu li plenumis sian malfacilan rolon.

Je la momento de skribado mi ankoraŭ ne vidis S-rin Edmonds post lia reveno el la Konferencoj en Ĝenevo, sed oni diras, ke la afero estis sukcesplena. Multe da bono nepre rezultos el la laboro tie farita.

Mi ĝojas diri, ke S-ro Warden, kun kiu mi pasigis kelkajn tagojn en Londono antaŭ lia foriro por libertempi en Italuj, sciigis al mi, ke la Esperanta traduko de la Biblio, verkita de nia amata Majstro, fine estas preskaŭ preta por la presisto, kaj ke ni povos atendi la aperon de la volumo post ne tre longe. Ĉiuj ĝojos pri tio, kaj ni scias, ke tiu verko aldonos novan kronon de triumfo por ĉiam al la famo de D-ro Zamenhof.

Kvankam, pro kialoj de sano, mi ne povisiri al Ĝenevo, mi ne permesis, ke la herbo kresku sub miaj piedoj, kaj lastatempe mi partoprenis en multaj kunvenoj, kiuj klare montris al mi, ke la intereso pri nia movado senĉese pligrandigas. Eble la plej grava el ili estis la Konferenco de Midland Adult School Union en Birmingham, kie cirkaŭ 600 delegitoj diskutis pri metodoj por faciligi la Internacian Fratecon. Dank' al la klopo de S-ro W. H. Sturge mi havis la honoron prezenti argumentojn pri la meritoj de Esperanto; kaj kun plezuro mi raportas, ke la delegitoj akceptis la jenan rezolucion: "Sekcio A unuanime opinias, ke la universala akcepto de Esperanto kiel la Internacia Helpa Lingvo estus grava pašo por la pligrandigo de internacia frateco, kaj forte rekomendas, ke ĉi tiu Konferenco subtenu la instruadon de Esperanto en ĉiuj Adult Schools senprokraste."

Dum tiu semajnfino mi renkontis multajn samideanojn kaj amikojn de nia lingvo, kaj mi sincere esperas, ke niaj interparoloj rezultos en pli vigla laborado kaj pli granda entuziasmo en la Mezlanda hejmo de nia movado.

FORTHCOMING CONGRESSES.

XVI Universal Congress, Vienna, 6—14 August, 1924.

A COMMERCIAL CONFERENCE will be held under the patronage of the Merchants' Guild of Vienna to discuss the introduction of Esperanto into the commercial world, and the use of Esperanto for international traffic. Congress members intending to take part should write at once the subjects of the proposals or reports they intend to make. Only matters of importance and of international interest can be placed on the agenda.

It is intended to organise a COMMERCIAL EXHIBITION of all goods in any way relating to Esperanto, either by title or application or description. No charge will be made for exhibition, but the usual percentage on sales will be expected.

Communications concerning the Conference and the Exhibition should be addressed to Esperanto-Kongreso, Komerca Konferenco, Sekr. VI, Mollardgasse 55, Vienna.

A Caravan to Vienna will leave Berlin on 5th Aug., arriving at Prague at 4 p.m., leaving Prague at 7 a.m. on 6th Aug., and arriving in Vienna at 3.0. Booking-fee 1 germ. ormk. If the journey is broken at Dresden seats cannot be reserved for the rest of the journey. Details from Max Blankenheim, Stubenrauchplatz 5, Berlin-Steglitz.

15th British Esperanto Congress, Chester, June 6-10.

MEMBERSHIP. Will those intending to visit the Congress, who have not yet joined, kindly apply for membership without delay, and thus facilitate securing of suitable accommodation?

CONGRESS BALL. It is most desirable that those possessing fancy dress should wear it on this occasion.

SECTIONAL MEETINGS. Applications for sectional meetings should be sent in at once.

FORESTONTOJ. Se vi ne povos ĉeesti la kongreson, nepre aĉetu biletton por helpi finance.

AGNES HOGG, Secretary,

25 Bradford St., Handbridge, CHESTER.

XII German Esperanto Congress, Plauen, 7—10 June, 1924.—Congress Card, 4 marks. Details from Hermann Scheider, Morgenbergrstr. 47, Plauen.

XIII Belgian Congress, Bruges, 7-9 June, 1924. Details from Esperanto Congress, 4 Wijnzakstraat, Bruges.

KRONIKO (FEDERACIA, GRUPA, KURSA).

South Eastern Federation Conference (Brighton, April 21st).—Mr. J. J. Boutwood, of Hastings, was elected President for the ensuing year, and Councillor W. E. Parry, of Brighton, was elected a Vice-President; Miss M. L. Blake, Col. G. S. Robinson, Mr. C. A. Fairman, and Mr. V. V. Sumfield, being re-elected to the latter office. The Conference, attended by members from Bexhill, Brighton, Croydon, Eastbourne, Hailsham, Hastings, Hove, London, and Watford, concluded with an enjoyable public meeting and concert, presided over by the Mayor of Brighton (Councillor H. Milner Black). The next conference will take place at Kingston-on-Thames.

Lancashire and Lancashire Federation Conference

(Waterfoot, 5 April).—About 80 members were welcomed by Councillor Lupton in the Co-operative Hall. The business meeting and tea were followed by a concert and dance. The Waterfoot Group gave an excellent rendering of the play "Angla Lingvo sen Profesoro." The meeting was well reported, with illustrations, in the Rossendale Free Press of 12 April.

Aberdeen.—Another page records the splendid way in which this group has supported the funds of the B.E.A. Well done!

Bethnal Green.—New affiliated Group: Secretary, N. Abramson, 580 Old Ford Rd., E.3. Meetings at Wolverley St. Men's Institute, Mondays, 7.30-9.30. Mr. H. A. Epton gave an interesting address on Esperanto and Radio on 28 April.

Bournemouth.—There are at present no less than eleven weekly group meetings and classes in Bournemouth, Parkstone, and Southbourne. Another class is awaiting a meeting place, and a local school commences instruction in May. There is also a Correspondence Circle for those unable to attend meetings. As an example of energy and enthusiasm on the part of a small group, at a season when some are content to die till the autumn, this is probably a record.

Doncaster.—The local society are supplying International Language monthly to various local libraries. Mr. Arthur J. Scott-Scott has started a class of ten at the Y.M.C.A.

Enfield.—A new class of 17 members opened on 7th April under Mr. Mason. On 5th April the Secretary of the B.E.A. visited the class conducted by Miss Rose. About 20 enthusiastic learners provided an enjoyable programme, including an original playlet in Esperanto.

Nottingham.—Mr. R. Anderson, 72 Wilsthorpe Lane, has formed a group in Long Eaton.

Whitchurch, Salop.—70 guests attended a social on 1 May arranged by members of Miss Furber's class; when there was an excellent programme of song and speech followed by supper and whist. It is hoped to found a group.

ESPERANTO EN LA LERNEJO.

Bournemouth.—An Esperanto Class is commencing in Knole Girls' School; teacher, Miss Cheeseman.

Brixton.—It has not been possible to obtain the hoped-for sanction for an official class. A large class of girls, however, is learning the language after school hours.

Ilford.—Miss W. Bothwell is teaching a class of 40 boys and girls after school hours at Newbury Park School.

KRONIKO FAKA

B.L.E.S. (British League of Esperantist Socialists).—At the annual meeting, 19th April, much progress and good work were reported. Membership had more than doubled in the past year. The membership fee was fixed at 2/-. C. W. Spiller (13 Dewsbury Road, London, N.W. 10), P. J. Cameron, and Mark Starr, were elected Secretary, Treasurer, and Chairman, respectively.

I.K.A. (Internacio Katolika). The new address of Ika (and of the magazine Katolika Mondo) is Ika, Zug, Switzerland. The fourth International Catholic Congress, including a propaganda Esperanto Conference, will be held in Venice, 15-20 August.

I.L.E.P.O. (Internacia Ligo de Esperantistaj Poštostoj). The English Secretary is now Mr. L. Jenkins, 64 St. Thomas' Rd., London, N.4.

EDZICO

Roberts—Collinge. Je 23 Aprilo, S-ro H. E. Roberts el Accrington kaj F.-ino P. Collinge el Reddish.
